DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Species 1 of Figures 1-13, along with all the instant claims 1-19, in the reply filed on September 10, 2004, is acknowledged.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-19 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over the claims of U. S. Patent No.'s 6,474,478 & 6,659,291 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: A display structure and security device comprising a display structure; a security device having a base and a first rod; a lock on the base; and a key.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As concerns claim 13, it is unclear as to whether the lock of the end assembly is a “second” lock or the same as the lock set forth in claim 12.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 and 8-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Canning 3,827,569.

Canning sets forth a display structure and security device comprising a display structure; a security device having a base (inclusive of member 11) and a first rod 32; a lock on the base (inclusive of members 40, 42, 43, 45, and 48); and a key (inclusive of member 27).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kawasaki et al 6,131,748 in view of Canning.

Kawasaki sets forth a display structure comprising a display structure; a base and a first rod; and a second rod 6. What Kawasaki does not set forth is a security device having a lock on the base and a key. However, Canning teaches the use of a security device having a lock on the base and a key (as advanced above) used within a display structure apparatus. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the display structure of Kawasaki by including a security device having a lock on the base and a key, as taught by Canning, in order to secure the merchandise that is placed upon the rod.
